Woman and Two Children Burned to Death.

Several Theories Regarding Cause of the Fire.

(рон гатер), реаграснен subsucond раск

GARDINER, Dec 17. About 3.30 this norning are was discovered in the house owned by Amos Mason, Windsor street, and occupied by a woman and two children, all three being burned to death. Frank Greenleat, who lives oposite, was awakened by a person going by on the sidewalk crying fire. He ran across the road, broke a window and pulled out the little girl, but she was bekitchen lying on its back, both being burned beyond recognition. The chillren were known by the names of Lillie Folsom, aged seven, and George Folsom, aged four. The woman was given several different names, but in a Bible found in the house was the name of Mrs. Wm When taken out, the little girl had all her clothes on Dr Lamb vas summoned but the child was dead when he arrived. Coroner H W. Hildreth, of Gardiner, deemed an inquest annecessary. It is impossible to get at the facts regarding the cause of the lire, but from what is known of the woman's past record it is probable that she was intoxicated and tipped over the lamp Although no inquest was held, there are a number of suspicious circumstances nnected with the case which may develop later. The loss on the house is the amount properly chargeable to such bank or account of the reatingtion of its circulation.

It is believed by the committee that the funds thus provided would be amply sufficient to secure the notes of the tailed banks. The bill reported limited the, amount of circulating notes which any bank may issue to 75 per cent of its capital stock. If under this bill the national banks should take out the undirective of the stock of the should be entired the aggregate of circulating notes would be $500,000,000.

It is demonstrated conclusively, the report says, that if the proposed bill lad been in force during the crisis of 1893; if all the banks had then fore taken during the say, and if the filled banks had also taken out their maximum cirquiation to the unaximum amount allowed by law, and if the filled banks had also taken out their maximum cirquiation the guarantee and sattey funds would have been ample for the payment of the entire circulation of the outstanding notes and would have been ample for the payment of the entire circulation of the outstanding notes and would have been ample for the payment of the entire circulation of the outstanding notes and would have been ample for the payment of over $11,000,000 still in the safety fund without the nocessity even in a great crists of that kind of making any assessment on the resources of the other mational banks.

The Westminster Gazette in an article on the death of Robert Louis Stevenson says that although Mr. Stevenson was anything but apoplectic, there is little doubt that his sad and untimely end was due to apoplexy induced by the heat of the climate. He left a new novel half completed. The Gazette says he was among the most lovable of modern writers and the news of his death will be heard with the keen est regrets. Perhaps no author of recent years has enlisted so much personal interest on the part of his readers. The Pail Mail Gazette says that in letters recently written Mr. Stevenson said he had two novels practically completed, though he could not be induced to part with them until they had received the finishing touches. One is entitled "The Chief Justice's Clerk," the plot of which was foreshadowed in Catrlona. Those who have read portions of this work regard it as his masterplece.

The other book entitled "St. Ives," is the story of a French pilsoner who made his eccipe from Edinburg Castie, and is a tale of stirring adventures in a romantic district in Scotland. Mr. Stevenson had many shorter tules sketched out. He loved Samoa better than any other place except Scotland. His wife being interviewed littely said. It will sometime be recalled as the the land A wild achauch of unreason and anarchy, with raving madmen and glubering idlots howling curses and imprecutions at all the world and threatening death and destruction to everybody and everything that stood in their way. It was on the yeasty crest of this wave of foam and spume and atter soum that Debs hung for a moment poised to public s view. Then he went down, and the hollow to which he fell was as deep as the wave was high. While he was in sight all the scum that had been tossed into high places foamed and fumed and effervesced in admiration for him. Since he toppled over they have forgotten h'm. Indeed, they are plunging down on top of him, and will presently be out of sight themselves. And when that happens, the American people, much poorer but a great deal wiser than they once were, will lift up their heads again and with profoundest gratitude exclaim:

Measures in the House.

Mashington Dec 17 After the disposition of routine morning business, including the adoption of a resolution offered by Mr Hill (Dem , N Y) calling on the secretary of the Highest for a copy of the income tax regulations, the Semilt bill to establish a national university was taken up and Mr kyle (Pop. S. D.) addressed the Semile in its advocacy Al 2th bill went to the calondar and the Nicaraguan canal bill was taken up Mr. Peffer (Pop., kan.) argued in favor of it. He suggested that the financial part of the bill was subject to criticism. He questioned the ability of the government to piv in gold the bonds provided for in the Nicaraguan canal bill, or pavit in gold bonds issued in 1894 if they were due to-morrow if silver-compge were restored and the coin reserve er larged there would be cointened by the government of all national binks to be concerned and the government of all national binks to be concerned and the government of all national binks to be concerned and the government of all national binks to be concerned and the government of all national binks to be concerned and the coin reserve er larged there would be cointened with this exception, as at present, and the substitution therefor serve er larged the government obligations. To continue the existing methods was to strengthen the grop of the court government to pin in gold the bonds provided for in the Nicaringua canal bill, or pay it in gold bonds issued in 1594 if they were due to-morrow if silver coinage were extered and the coin reserve erlarged there would be cointough to meet the government obligations. To continue the existing methods was to strengthen the grip of the concentrated money power. In ten years, there would be $100,000,000 of bonds due and in 15, years $500,000,000. The government is now compelled to sell bonds to precure gold to carry on ordinary dilates to continue that policy was to mitten usaster.

Attempt Made to Wreck in Train on the Boston & Malne.

Lynnitip, Mass, Dec. 17 It has just leaked out that a very bold attempt was made to wreck the jassenger train on the western division of the Boston & Malne rallroad a short time ago. James Russell, owner of an extensive grante quarry here, was walking home a few evenings since and went up the tracks. At the suitch of the side track which leads to the quarry he discovered several large iron plates weedged into and between the raits solid and fust. He had great difficulty in removing them before the arrival of the train leaving Boston at 45 P M.

Mr Ramstell reported the matter to the railroad officials, who have been working on the case ever since. The iron plates were driven and wedged in between the rails of the malu line and switches so that it would have been impossible for a train to have passed over them safely and would have thrown the train on the side track into the granite quarry and as the train is one of the heaviest loaded with passengers passing over the road during the day he loss of life would have been very heavy.

for Infants and Children.

HIRTY years' observation of Casteria with the patronage of millions of persons, permit us to speak of it without guessing. It is unquestionably the bost remedy for Infants and Children the world has ever known. It is harmless. Children like it, It gives them health. It will save their lives. In it Mothers have something which is absolutely safe and practically perfect as a obild's medicine

Castoria destroys Worms. Castoria allays Fovorishness

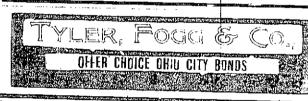

Castoria prevents vamiting Sour Card Castoria ouros Diarrhoo and Wind Colin. Castoria relieves Teething Troubles. Castoria curos Constipation and Flatuloucy

Casteria neutralizes the effects of carbonic acid gas or poisonous air. Castoria does not contain morphine, oplum, or other narcotic property. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and howels, giving hoalthy and natural sleep.

Castoria is put up in one-size buttles only. It is not sold in bulk. Don't allow any one to sell you anything else on the plea or promise that it is "just as good" and " will answer every purpose." See that you get C-A-S-T-O-R-I-A.

PROBABLE MURDER.

Remains of a Man Discovered While Diagring a Celtar.

ONCORD, N. H., Dec. 15. Yesterday workmen while diagring for a cellar uncarthed portions of a human skeleton and huttons and remnants of celething on the site of Camp Gilmore, a rendezvous for recruits and substitutes during the war. Although nothing was discovered to assist in identification of the remains, it is supposed they are those of a man mardered while the troops were encamped there.

Against the New Haven Ralladium. NEW HAVEN, Conn., Duc.16. Judge W. B. Stoddard, attorney of Sheriff Tom-liason, to-day brought sait against the New Haven Palladium for libel, claiming $10,000 damages for an article printed Oct. 14, alleging that Tomlinson was guilty of unquestionable trickery in the Milford town election.
